

COVID-19 Measures in European MS

Country		Government measure effective	Shops status	E-commerce status	Manufacturing	Other info
	Austria	From 14 April 2020	Supermarkets, pharmacies, drug stores, animal food and tobacco shops and newsstands. And small shops (under 400 sq. meters) as well as DIY and gardening stores are authorized to reopen. Conditions include for example use of face-masks, disinfection and a limited number of customers per shop. From 1 May, all shops will open unless decided otherwise. More info	Online shops are active. Automated pick-up/drop-off points are allowed to operate.	People in COVID-19 risk groups are not allowed to go to work.	No restrictions to road freight transport. Border controls for road transport from Italy.
	Belgium	Until 3 May 2020	All non-essential shops are closed. Only food shops, pharmacies and newsstands are open. From 1 May, DIY shops and garden centres will be allowed to open.	Postal services and delivery are authorized. Online shops are active. Automated pick-up/drop-off points are allowed to operate.	For the functions to which telework cannot apply, companies must take the necessary measures to guarantee compliance with the rules of social distancing. Non-	No restrictions to road freight transport. Border controls essential business that cannot guarantee these working conditions must close.

	Bulgaria	Until 13 May 2020	All shops closed except grocery shops and pharmacies.			No restriction for road freight transport.
	Croatia		All shops closed except food stores, pharmacies, bakeries, petrol stations.			No restrictions for the road freight transport but there are systematic border checks.
	Cyprus	Until 30 April 2020	Only supermarkets, bakeries, pharmacies and fuel stations are open.			No restrictions to maritime cargo transport.
	Czech Republic	From 9 April 2020	Before 9 April, only supermarkets, electronic shops and pharmacies were open. From 9 April, DIY/hobby markets, gardening stores &amp; bicycle repair shops are allowed to reopen. They have to apply strict hygienic rules. More stores are scheduled to reopen after Easter, including shoe shops and stationery stores (tbc)			No restriction for road freight transport.
	Denmark	Until 10 May	Stores remain open but	Online shops are		Random controls for 2020	must secure at least 4m2 per customer and ensure that customers keep a proper distance. Shopping malls are closed.	active. Automated pick-up/drop-off points are allowed to operate.		road freight transport – but no restrictions.

	Estonia		Only grocery stores, pharmacies, telecommunication outlets are open	Parcel terminals remain open		No restriction to road freight transport
	Finland		Stores remain open.	Online shops are active
	France	Until 10 May 2020	Food shops, pharmacies, banks, tobacco, newsstands and petrol stations to stay open  From 11 May, “non-essential goods shops” will be allowed to open. Waiting for precisions from government.	Online shops are active. Mail deliveries are considered an essential service. However, La Poste has reduced deliveries to 3 days/week and ask customers to concentrate on what is strictly necessary. Mondial Relay and Relais Colis have closed all parcel collection points. Amazon France is prioritising essential goods and some items might not be available/delayed shipment. Automated pick-	If teleworking is not possible, workers can still go to their workplace but they need to show a work certificate. Employers need to ensure the safety of the workplace.	No restrictions to road freight transport up/drop-off points are allowed to operate.

	Germany	From 20 April 2020	Food shops, pharmacies, drugstores, petrol stations, newsstands are open. Shops under 800m2 selling furniture, cars, bicycles, books can open. From 3 May, all shops will be allowed to open.	Online shops are active. Postal services are not restricted. Amazon Germany says that delivery times might be longer. Automated pick-up/drop-off points are allowed to operate.	There is no statutory entitlement to work from home. However, employees can do so if their employer agrees	No restrictions to road freight transport, but border controls in place.
	Greece	Until 27 April	Supermarkets, bakeries, pharmacies remain open.			No restrictions to road freight transport
	Hungary		Food shops, drugstores, pharmacies, petrol stations and tobacco stores remain open. Other stores are not allowed to remain open beyond 3 PM.	Postal services are not restricted.		No restrictions to road freight transport
	Ireland	5 May 2020	Food shops, drugstores, petrol stations, newsstands remain open. Information	Postal services are not restricted.	Those not engaged in the provision of essential services (food & beverages, paper, newspapers and media, chemicals, pharma) are not permitted to travel to and from work until 12 April 2020.
	Italy	Lockdown until 3 May 2020	Food shops, drugstores, petrol stations remain open.	Online shops are active. Automated pick-up/drop-off points are closed.	All non-essential factories are closed.

			From 14 April , bookshops, libraries and shops for baby products and children's clothes will be allowed to open.	Amazon Italy is prioritising essential goods and some items might not be available/delayed shipment.
	Latvia	Until 12 May 2020	Shopping centres closed during the weekend.
	Lithuania	27 April 2020	Essential stores (food shops, pharmacies) remain open	Online shops are active.	Work from home is recommended but not mandatory.	No restrictions to road freight transport
	Luxemburg	26 April 2020	Food shops, drugstores, petrol stations, pharmacies, newsstands remain open.	Online shops are active.	A list of essential services has been released. Workers from these sectors might not be authorized to go on holiday. Travel to workplace is still authorized.
	Malta		Essential stores (food stores, medical services, pet stores) remain open.	Online shops are active.	Working from home has been encouraged but factories have not been closed.
	Netherlands	Until 3 May 2020	Shops can remain open if they can ensure that customers keep a good distance from others (1.5m) Information	Online shops are active. Automated pick-up/drop-off points are allowed to operate.	If teleworking is not possible, workers can still go to their workplace.	No restrictions to road freight transport
	Poland	Until 19 April 2020	Only food stores, pharmacies, drug stores are open	Online shops are active		No restrictions to road freight transport
	Portugal	Until 1 May 2020	Only food stores, drugstores, pharmacies,	Online shops are active	If teleworking is not possible, workers can	No restrictions to road freight transport newsstands, tobacco stores, DIY stores, flower stores and petrol stations are open.		still go to their workplace.

	Romania	25 April 2020	All shops have been closed except food stores, pharmacies	Online shops are active	Employees can still go to work but require a work certificate
	Russia	Until 30 April 2020	Only food shops and pharmacies are open. The list of essential non-food products, published by the government includes: sanitary goods (masks, hand sanitizer, soap, etc.), products for children (nappies, baby bottles, etc...), and other essential goods such as candles, matches, petrol and pet supplies. Organizations providing food or any of these goods are allowed to continue their operations between 30 March and 30 April.	Online shops are active	Paid non-working period started on 30 March. On 2 April, the Russian government announced the extension of this period until the end of April.
	Slovakia		Food shops, pharmacies, drug stores, newsstands and petrol stations remain open. All shops are closed on Sunday for disinfection and to allow the staff to rest.	Online shops are active	Teleworking is recommended but not mandatory.	No restrictions to road freight transport. Truck drivers must be equipped with protective equipment.
	Slovenia		Food shops, pharmacies,	Online shops and	Travel to workplace is newsstands, gas stations remain open.	delivery services are active.	still authorized.

	Spain	Until 26 April 2020	Only food shops, pharmacies, tobacco stores, newsstands, drugstores, petrol stations remain open.	Online shops are active. Automated pick-up/drop-off. Amazon Germany says that delivery times might be longer points are reserved for essential goods.	All non-essential economic activities are suspended until 13 April 2020.	No restrictions to road freight transport
	Sweden	No lockdown measures yet.	Stores remain open.  Law was adopted allowing after 18 April , to impose closure of shops & restaurants, if necessary.	Online shops are active. Automated pick-up/drop-off points are allowed to operate.	N/A	No restrictions to road freight transport
	United Kingdom	Until 16 April 2020	Food retailers, pharmacies, newsagents, petrol stations and corner shops remain open.  Toy stores inside supermarkets remain open.  Probable extension of lockdown of 3 further weeks	Online shops are active.	If teleworking is not possible, workers can still go to their workplace.	No restrictions to road freight transport