“

The Workspace Design Show was just the tonic that our community needed after the isolation and worry of the pandemic – like-minded people in the same place, catching up to see, touch, hear and speak about design!

“ Deciding to exhibit at the Workspace Design Show was great for the AllSfär team. An ideal opportunity for us to meet highly relevant contacts and showcase our latest products and colour range, the show was a huge success for us, delivering new leads and quality enquiries. We've already booked our stand for the next show in 2023!

“

The show had a real buzz about it which was exciting to see. It was good to see all the products on display – perhaps as we get back to working in new ways, we will see more variety of furniture settings.
